JACK D. GRIFFETH
CERTIFIED MEDIATOR

COLLINS AND LACY, P.C.
37 VILLA ROAD, SUITE 500
GREENVILLE, SOUTH CAROLINA 29615
(864) 282-9100
jgriffeth@collinsandlacy.com

Degrees: A.B. Liberal Arts (summa cum laude) - Wofford College, Spartanburg, South Carolina, 1973.
Juris Doctor - Duke University, Durham, North Carolina, 1976.

Professional Experience: In the 34 years of law practice, Jack has been a defense trial lawyer and concentrates on mediation. He is general Counsel to Wofford College, Furman University and Spartanburg Methodist College and has developed a defense practice representing employers in employment related litigation. He is certified by the S.C. Bar as an approved mediator. He is a member of International Association of Defense Counsel. The IADC is the oldest and most prestigious international organization of attorneys representing corporations and insurers and a leader in legal reform and professional development. He is also a member of Outstanding Lawyers of America. Selection in Outstanding Lawyers of America is based on nomination by one or more peers and/or the review of professional achievements and accomplishments by OLA. Membership is limited to 100 members per state. Member of S.C. Bar House of Delegates; Past President of S.C. Bar ADR Council.

College Honors and Achievements: Phi Beta Kappa; Blue Key; President of the Student Body - two years; Senior Order of Gnomes.

Law School Honors and Achievements: First (and to date, the only) Recipient of Charles S. Murphy Award (this award was created to honor unique contributions to the Duke Law School Community); Recipient of Benjamin O. Johnson Scholarship; Recipient of Dean's Scholarship; President of the Student Bar Association.

Community Involvement: Leadership Greenville X; past President Board of Directors Meyer Center for Special Children (2 terms); past Vice President Senior Action Board of Directors; Loaned Executive for United Way (2 years); past member Duke Law School Alumni Council; presently a member of Wofford Alumni Council; past president of the Greenville Chorale.