

SC Chapter of Federal Bar Association Mentorship Program with Federal Drug Court- In Need of Mentors

The South Carolina Chapter of the Federal Bar Association has launched an exciting mentorship program for the participants of our Federal Drug Court in Charleston. We are in need of mentors for this program. Mentors interact with drug court participants as well as judges and Court staff and provide advice and assistance with job search and study skills, healthy living techniques, and personal finance strategies, among other things.

To learn more about drug court and this mentoring program, please make plans to attend drug court at the Charleston Federal Courthouse at 85 Broad Street, Courtroom # 6 at 4:00 pm on Tuesday, October 8 or on Tuesday, October 22, 2013. Afterwards, U.S. Magistrate Judge Bruce Howe Hendricks will meet with attendees to answer questions about the drug court and its mentoring program.

What: BRIDGE hearing & mentoring info session with Judge Hendricks
When: Tuesday, October 8 and Tuesday, October 22, 2013 at 4:00 pm
Where: Charleston Federal Courthouse, 85 Broad Street, in Courtroom VI

To sign up, email BRIDGE_mentoring@scd.uscourts.gov or complete a mentor application at <http://www.scp.uscourts.gov/DrugCourt/default.aspx>.