

United States District Court
District of South Carolina

Date: August 28, 2003

Subject: Law Clerk Applications

It is the policy of the District of South Carolina that law clerk applicants cannot be interviewed or hired before the June 15th that follows the completion of the applicant's second year of law school. Students may, however, submit applications prior to June 15th.