FEDERAL SENTENCING GUIDELINES SEMINAR

Training Notice

The United States District Court for the District of South Carolina will provide a Federal Sentencing Guidelines Seminar which will be hosted by the United States Probation Office in Greenville, South Carolina, on Tuesday, November 1, 2016. The seminar will be held at Greenville Technical College, 506 S. Pleasantburg Drive, J. Verne Smith Technical Resource Center Auditorium, Building 102, Greenville, South Carolina. Check-in will begin at 8:30 a.m. until 8:55 a.m., and the seminar will begin promptly at 9:00 a.m. The United States Sentencing Commission will provide training advisors who will speak on the new guideline amendments, Relevant Conduct, Fraud offenses, and how relevant conduct may affect guideline calculations for those offenses, and case-law as it applies to the Fourth Circuit.

This seminar has been approved for 6.41 CLE credits and one (1) additional credit for Ethics. There is no registration fee for this seminar. To register, complete and submit the attached form by October 25, 2016. Please send the form by using one of the three options listed on the form.

If you have questions regarding the seminar, please contact Tim Slice at (864) 239-6123 or tim\_slice@scp.uscourts.gov.
