THE POSITION

This vacancy is for a term law clerk to the Honorable Timothy M. Cain, United States District Judge. The law clerk has full responsibility for assigned civil and criminal cases. The law clerk reviews complaints for jurisdiction, drafts proposed orders, conducts legal research, manages a civil docket, assists with criminal cases, assists with and attends court proceedings, acts as a legal advisor on pending litigation, and performs other duties as assigned. Other duties may include administrative duties such as handling the chambers' calendar, answering the phone, and greeting visitors.

QUALIFICATIONS

To qualify for the position of law clerk at salary level JSP 11, a person must be a law school graduate and have one or more of the following attributes:

- Standing within the upper third of the law school class from a law school on the approved list of either the American Bar Association or the Association of American Law Schools;
- Experience on the editorial board of a legal journal of such school; or
- Demonstrated proficiency in legal studies which, in the opinion of the Judge, is the equivalent of one of the above. Some examples of criteria which are considered to be acceptable as equivalent include:
  - Publication of a noteworthy article in a law school student publication or other scholarly publication;
  - Special high-level honors for academic excellence in law school, such as election to the Order of the Coif; or
  - Winning a moot court competition or membership on a moot court team that represents the law school in competition with other law schools.

This list is not all-inclusive. The determination of an acceptable equivalence rests with the appointing Judge.

To qualify for the position of law clerk at salary level JSP 12, a person must be a law school graduate, have one year of legal work experience performed after graduation from law school, be a member of the bar of a state, territorial, or federal court of general jurisdiction and have one or more of the attributes listed in the first paragraph under Qualifications.

To qualify for the position of law clerk at salary level JSP 13, a person must be a law school graduate, have two years of legal work experience performed after graduation from law school, be a member of the bar of a state, territorial, or federal court of general jurisdiction and have one or more of the attributes listed in the first paragraph under Qualifications.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS

Preference will be given to applicants who possess law review/journal experience, are in the top 15% of class, and who have post-law-school legal work experience. Experience with Westlaw is also preferred. Demonstrated legal writing of the highest quality is required.

BENEFITS

Term law clerks are eligible for health insurance. Depending on the length of the term, clerks may also be eligible for dental, vision, and life insurance. Paid vacation time and paid sick time may also be available. Parking is provided on-site at no cost.

Term clerks are not eligible to participate in the Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS) or Thrift Savings Plan (TSP).

APPLICANT INFORMATION

The Court reserves the right to modify the conditions of this job announcement, or to withdraw the announcement, any of which may occur without prior written or other notice. In the event that the position becomes vacant in a similar classification, within a reasonable time of the original announcement, the Court may elect to select a candidate from the applicants who responded to the original announcement without posting the position.

Only qualified applicants will be considered for this position. Employees of the United States District Court serve under “Excepted Appointments” and are considered “at will” employees.

This position is subject to the mandatory electronic fund transfer (EFT) participation for payment of net pay (i.e. Direct Deposit).

Non-citizens may be interviewed and considered for employment, but employment offers will only be made to individuals who qualify under one of the exceptions in 8 U.S.C § 1324b(a)(3)(B). In most cases, this means that an offer of employment cannot be made unless the candidate is a lawful permanent resident who is seeking U.S. citizenship as explained below. Under 8 U.S.C. §1324(a)(3)(B), a lawful permanent resident seeking citizenship may not apply for citizenship until he or she has been a permanent resident for at least five years (three years if seeking naturalization as a spouse of a citizen), at which point he or she must apply for citizenship within six months of becoming eligible, and must complete the process within two years of applying (unless there is a delay caused by the processors of the application). Non-citizens who have not been permanent residents for five years will be required to execute an affidavit that they intend to apply for citizenship when they become eligible to do so.

HOW TO APPLY

Qualified persons interested in being considered are invited to submit a cover letter, resume, and list of at least three (3) professional references which includes the name and current contact information of said references. In lieu of letters of recommendation, the court may reach out to these references.

If your application packet does not provide all information requested, you may not be considered for this position.

Only applicants selected to proceed to the next phase of the selection process will be notified. Should the court conduct in-person interviews for the next phase, no compensation is available for travel or expenses. Unsuccessful applicants will not receive notice.

Application packets are to be mailed or emailed. Mailed applications should be sent to:

United States District Court
The G. Ross Anderson, Jr. Federal Bldg. & U.S. Courthouse
315 South McDuffie Street
Anderson, SC 29624

Emailed applications should be emailed in PDF format to cain\_ecf@scd.uscourts.gov.
