Fees by Alexander A. Reinert)
)

This matter is before the court upon the application and request by Alexander A. Reinert for exemption from the fees imposed by the Electronic Public Access fee schedule adopted by the Judicial Conference of the United States Courts.

The court finds that Alexander A. Reinert as an individual researcher associated with Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law falls within the class of users listed in the fee schedule as being eligible for a fee exemption. Additionally, Alexander A. Reinert has demonstrated that an exemption is necessary in order to avoid unreasonable burdens and to promote public access to information. Accordingly, Alexander A. Reinert shall be exempt from the payment of fees for access via PACER to the electronic case files maintained in this court, to the extent such use is incurred in the course of his research in the area of civil litigation. He shall not be exempt from the payment of fees incurred in connection with other uses of the PACER system in this court. Additionally, the following limitations apply:

1. This fee exemption applies only to Alexander A. Reinert, and is valid only for the purposes stated above;
2. This fee exemption applies only to the electronic case files of this court that are available through the PACER system;
3. By accepting this exemption, Alexander A. Reinert agrees not to sell for profit any data obtained as a result of receiving this exemption;

4. This exemption is valid until April 18, 2012.

This exemption may be revoked at the discretion of the court at any time. A copy of this Order shall be sent to the PACER Service Center.

Dated this 18th day of April, 2011.
